

Breakthrough Parenting[®]

for Parents with Child Custody Issues

Breakthrough Parenting for Parents with Child Custody Issues is a 10-week course, one evening per week, that can greatly help you successfully resolve child custody issues and will enhance your parenting skills. The lively interactive training focuses on skills in promoting self-esteem, teaching self-discipline, resolving conflict in a win/win way, understanding how children think and having age-appropriate expectations. The goal of the course is to promote responsible, thinking, loving, and confident children by using modern parenting techniques. Parents report positive long-term results with their children and improved relationships in all areas of their lives.

You can protect your children from family law disputes by using positive strategies, conflict resolution methods, learning to communicate under difficult circumstances, designing parent plans, preparing for child custody evaluations and how to best work with an attorney.

Instructor provides personal attention for your custody situation as well as an opportunity to network with other parents who have family law issues. Attorneys and mental health professionals regularly speak at the classes.

WHEN: Thursdays 6:30-9:30 p.m.

DINNER MEETING $5.00 minimum food order
